

Continued Report from the ISM In-Depth Bible Study:

In May, two of our international students, Danny Pan and Tianzhao (Jonathan) Wu, attended the International Student Ministries, Inc. In-Depth Bible Seminar for International Students in St. Louis. This week-long conference provides students with an overview of the Bible, a study of Lutheran doctrine, and training and growth in small group ministry. Danny answered the following questions about his experience:

How does this experience help you be a better witness for Christ?

It is so inspirational to witness God's work in this group, and it is so joyful to bind with each other in love of God. And thanks to Pastor Paul and Pastor Lee 's comprehensive teaching, we learn to dive deep into God's Word and we are equipped with lots of evangelism skills to preach God's word to the world.

Did the experience strengthen your faith? For sure. Hearing the testimonies from different people remind us of the whole picture of Christ's church-- every believer contributes himself to the church, the body of Christ. And seeing how God's power and strength showed in different people's lives in a certain period of lifetime helps us to remember God's faithfulness and the Hope we have in His Promise.

(Danny Pan)
