Zone Rally – April 23: Mark your calendar and plan to attend the LWML Zone Rally at Trinity Lutheran Church, Goodland on Saturday, April 23, 9am (CDT). Cost is $5, which includes snacks, lunch, and a presentation by Deaconess Pat Nuffer about the work of Hands of Mercy, South Sudan. Contact LWML President Rachelle Lapham to register.

Pocket Change Sunday – April 24: The LWML is sponsoring monthly Pocket Change Sundays, encouraging people to bring in coins to donate for mission projects. Please plan to bring in your spare change on April 24 for our next collection.

Glasses Collection: We are currently collecting adult and children’s glasses, reading glasses, and sunglasses to be distributed on an LWML-sponsored mission trip to Nicaragua in June. If you have gently used or new glasses you would like to donate, please place them in the box on the LWML table in the narthex.

Soles4Souls Shoe Collection Update: We are continuing to collect all kinds of shoes for needy people around the world. Please donate your gently used or new shoes in the box downstairs to help this worthwhile cause. Thanks to Amy Leineweber for making a trip to the Tennessee Soles4Souls warehouse recently with 454 pairs of donated shoes, and to Nancy Maylath for securing a Thrivent grant to purchase many pairs of shoes!

Snack Packet Collection: Until the end of April, we are asking students and members to bring in individually wrapped single servings of snacks, including chips, pretzels, crackers, cookies, etc. The snack packets will be distributed to Home with Hope, a transitional housing facility for people struggling with addiction, for the residents to pack in their lunches. Please bring in your donations and leave them on the display table in the narthex.

Graduating? If you are graduating in May, please put an X by your name when you sign the friendship pad or e-mail the church office at ulutheranchurch@gmail.com. We would like to recognize graduates, as well as keep our mailing list up to date.

New Music Ministry Format: Our music ministry program is using a modified format this semester to encourage participation from more musicians and singers. Instead of a dedicated hour-long weekly choir rehearsal, we will now offer an open rehearsal time on Tuesdays from 7:00-8:00pm for any singer or instrumentalist who would like to assist with special music for a worship service this semester. To volunteer to help with music on a specific Sunday, sign up on the bulletin board in the hallway or contact Director of Music Ministry Rachelle Lapham at rachelle.buuck@gmail.com for more information.

Water Bottle Collection: We are still collecting 16.9 fl. oz. water bottles for Food Finders Food Bank. The bottles are used to distribute laundry soap, and Food Finders currently uses about 2,100 bottles per month. Please deposit the bottles, uncrushed with the lid, in our collection container downstairs.

Lutheran Hour Broadcast: Using John 21:1-14 as his reference, in next week's broadcast, Pastor Gregory Seltz asks the rhetorical question "What's For Breakfast?" as the centerpiece of his sermon, asserting that Jesus shows up to reinforce that God is always close to us and that He always cares about us. The Lutheran Hour is heard every Sunday in our listening area at 7am (720 AM); 7:30am (97.3 FM); 9:04am (107.7 FM); and 10am (97.3 FM).

Issues, Etc. Radio Show: You can listen to Lutheran experts teaching on topics like: Evidence for the Resurrection, Responding to Bart Ehrman's Book "Jesus Before the Gospels," Jesus & Thomas, The Hymn "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today," Jesus Reinstates Peter and more. Issues, Etc. is a radio talk show hosted by LCMS Pastor Todd Wilken and produced by Lutheran Public Radio in Collinsville, IL. 2017 LCMS Campus Ministry Conference: Mark your calendar now to attend “Liberty,” the 2017 National LCMS Campus Ministry Conference, planned for Jan. 4-6, 2017. The event for college students and campus-ministry workers will take place on the campus of the University of Maryland in College Park, Md., which is a 30-minute drive from downtown Washington, D.C. “Liberty” will be the much-anticipated third LCMS U Conference following “Unwrapped” in 2013 and “Taboo” in 2015, when students focused on apologetics and marriage/sexuality issues, respectively. “Liberty” will provide a forum to address fundamental issues related to religious liberty, the First Amendment and cultivating the vocation of Christian citizenship on campus. It will encourage and equip our college students, who are on the front lines of religious liberty issues that seem to be multiplying each day. Start making plans to join us to discuss these important issues as we usher in the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. For more information, visit <http://calendar.lcms.org/event/2017-lcms-campus-ministry-conference>.

Lutheran Legal League: The Florida-Georgia District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod has begun a national ministry called the Lutheran Legal League (“L3”) which serves to connect God’s people in the LCMS to lawyers who are also members of an LCMS congregation in your state. If you are an LCMS church, school, ministry, worker, or member in need of legal assistance, or if you are an attorney who is a member of an LCMS congregation and would like to extend your service to God’s people, please contact rustyh@lutheranlegalleague.org.

Wittenberg Project Update: In gracious appreciation for all those who have so generously supported this project thus far, we are pleased to announce education and outreach programming has begun at the International Lutheran Center in Wittenberg, Germany. A new era of Lutheran scholarship, outreach, witness, service and education is now possible in the birthplace of the Reformation, through a facility located at the very center of historic Wittenberg. The International Lutheran Center, located in the Old Latin School, is ready to welcome the 10,000 people expected to visit Wittenberg each day in 2017, the 500th anniversary of the Reformation. Final renovations are nearly complete. But there is still time to join in supporting this historic project ahead of the Reformation anniversary celebrations. Every gift, in any amount, will make a difference. For information on how to donate, see the flyer posted in the hallway or visit lcms.org/givenow/wittenberg.

LCMS Missionary Opportunities: Still not sure what to do after graduation? The LCMS Office of International Mission is seeking candidates to apply for international missionary service opportunities. These missionary positions are open for applicants who are members of LCMS congregations and are college or university graduates. Other qualifications vary by position. Most college grads with an LCMS background that are native speakers of the English language and can talk intelligently about the Gospel could likely qualify for most of the positions available. For more information, contact David Fiala at david.fiala@lcms.org or visit www.lcms.org/service or www.facebook.com/becomeamissionary.
